

Does he/she run or wander away? If so, what steps do you take to prevent this?

Does he/she have any challenging behaviors? If so, how do we manage behaviors?

Home Rules

May he/she go outside (Y/N)?
May he/she go outside alone (Y/N)?
With supervision only?
If yes, for how long?
May he/she have visitors?
If yes, who?

For how long?

Additional information:

About Our Family

The family.

Family Member

Name:

Diagnosis:

Address:

Insurance information:

Phone Numbers

Family Member

Home # :

Caregiver #1 Cell:

Home:

Caregiver #2 Cell:

Home:

Physician:

Number:

Emergency Numbers Fire 911/Police 911

Poison Control:

In case of emergency, if a family caregiver cannot be reached, please call:

Name:

Home #:

Cell #:

Relationship to our family:

Information for Our Respite Provider

A brochure to assist those who are receiving or providing respite services.

1-866-737-8252

info@alabamarespite.org

About Our Family Member

Does your family member use any adaptive equipment? If so, what type?

Where is the equipment located, and how or when should it be used?

Is he/she able to self-feed?

If no, what kind of help do they need?

Does he/she require a special diet?

If yes, please describe:

List any food allergies:

Food likes or dislikes?

Is he/she able to self-toilet? _____ If no, what assistance do they need?

Is he/she incontinent? _____ If yes, how do you handle this situation?

Is he/she able to walk independently?

If no, what assistance and/or mobility devices are needed?

What assistance is needed for brushing teeth, dressing, or bathing?

When is bedtime? _____ Naptime? _____

Any special positioning required?

Medical Information

Does he/she have seizures? _____ If yes, please describe in detail what happens during & after a seizure occurs:

What is his/her usual temperament?

Behavior

What is his/her usual temperament?

What makes him/her happy?

Does he/she experience agitation or hostility? _____ If so, what situations tend to increase agitation and hostility?

What methods have you found to reduce agitation and hostility?
